OBJECTIVES OF DEVELOPMENT GAMES – CPISRA is committed to provide a development and education experience to introduce, encourage and grow participation in boccia, racerunning and wheelchair slalom and, simultaneously, to enhance competitive opportunities and pathways. In this sense, the key objectives of a Development Games are:

- To provide a multi-sport event that embraces introduction and development.
- To allow development athletes to learn, develop and improve by providing appropriate conditions and services in an operationally sound environment.

- To create a friendly and supportive environment that encourages and educates athletes, team management, officials, coaches and volunteers.
 - To provide the opportunity for development athletes to experience different cultures and develop friendships.
 - To act as a catalyst for enhancing awareness, opportunity and participation in a sport and/or sub region.
